TTA can also offer competitive and, where possible, flexible alternative fee arrangements that many other firms cannot. Its strengths include expertise in insolvency and restructurings, dispute resolution, private client, funds, banking, corporate, and regulatory matters. Languages spoken by the firm include English, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese and Mandarin. Lawyers in the firm's Hong Kong office are vastly experienced in the Asian market and the Cayman Islands' dispute resolution team regularly handles cases involving multi-jurisdictional issues, often with an Asian, UK and/or US connection.

TTA operates a unique 'partner heavy' model where clients are guaranteed the close involvement of an experienced partner at all times. TTA's streamlined operating model allows it to provide superior legal advice at substantially lower rates and to offer flexible fee arrangements that are compelling.

The firm's dispute resolution group regularly acts in high-profile cross-border insolvencies and restructurings, often of multi-billion dollar listed companies, international commercial disputes including for shareholders, liquidators, trustees, investors, funds, directors, banks, and high net worth individuals from all over the world.
